

Arthur Dupree, collier, Tredegar, was summoned at Newport for interfering with the comfort of other passengers on the Great Western Railway at Risca. Mr L. H. Hornby prosecuted, and the defendant pleaded guilty. Demetrius Evans, Dunkertown, stated that defendant entered a saloon at Stapleton Road, and caused a disturbance. Dupree was very disorderly, and struck witness and a boy. The defendant was held down, and the communication cord was pulled. Dupree was fined 40s, and ordered to pay 5s costs.
