

Tredegar Miner and His Cigarette.

Bernard Dupree (21), a miner, of Tredegar, pleaded guilty at Blackwood on Friday to having a piece of cigarette in the Wyllie Colliery.

Mr. Trevor Griffiths, Blackwood, prosecuted.

At the time of the discovery there were 450 men in the mine.

The defendant's explanation was that the cigarette went down through the hole of the bottom of his pocket.

He was ordered to pay 10s. towards the costs, a conviction not being recorded.
